THE AGE OF ENLIGHTENMENT

The Art and Music of the Eighteenth Century

Friday 22nd - Sunday 24th March 2019

The Hickstead Hotel, near Burgess Hill, West Sussex

Our weekend will explore a varied and representative selection of paintings and music associated with the Eighteenth Century and into the Nineteenth– the so-called Age of Enlightenment - with illustrations on excellent hi-fi and visual equipment. The featured artists and composers will include Hogarth, Gainsborough, David and Goya, Bach, Handel, Mozart and Beethoven.

Set in peaceful Sussex countryside nestling beneath the Downs, yet only 20 minutes from Gatwick Airport and the centre of Brighton, The Hickstead Hotel is the perfect location for a conference. It has first class facilities and a peaceful and beautiful setting, including fifty en-suite rooms.

Terry Barfoot writes widely on music for Britain's leading journals, orchestras, festivals and record companies. He lectures at venues throughout the country, is Publications Consultant to the Bournemouth Symphony Orchestra and the Director of Arts in Residence.

Tim Gwyther is an experienced art historian and practising artist who has exhibited widely both in London and the regions. He has taken part in several Arts in Residence events.

We arrive on Friday at 5pm and depart on Sunday afternoon. Arts in Residence and the Hickstead Hotel offer an excellent cuisine including dinners with wine.

Price: £295.00 per person (twin/double rooms), £320.00 (single rooms) to include all meals, wine, beverages, course fees and accommodation.
